efforts from CRC and CCS. Please let me know if your res college produces a newsletter (and frequency).

a. Great story about CRC! Congratulations CRC for hosting a vice president debate watch gathering with talk back that made the news! CRC news story - for your review.

b. Kudos to CCS on their collaborative newsletter. Here is a sample of a recent issue, CCS Fall Q newsletter, October 4, 2020

- ii. Residential College Visibility project, NU Syllabus 2021. As you know ISRC officer and Syllabus Editor-in-Chief Kiana Staples visited RCB last week to share her perspective on the benefits and long-term value of having a page in the Syllabus yearbook. ORAI/residential colleges have been involved with this collective effort of ordering blocked pages for over ten years. We have the opportunity to archive important information about current members and a few photos highlighting program life in your residential college in the NU Syllabus yearbook. NU Syllabus is offering a block rate of $75/page. In the next week, I will email you a sample scanned page layout so you can appreciate what it looks like. I sincerely hope we will have 100% participation this year.

Action request: By 1 pm, Tues, Nov. 10, please email me your RC page interest. This reply date will be your RC's documented request to have page placement in the yearbook so we can reserve blocked pages. The $75 payment should be centrally processed during Winter Quarter.

3. Presidential Updates

a. Sarah (Ayers CCI)

- i. Had two firesides in the past two weeks, and we're having another one on Wednesday
