  - i. Update from Brad, postponing RCB visit today: Unfortunately, he doesn't have any news to report to RCB so he won't attend tonight's meeting, but would like to attend next week. He replied to an email from Mallory about his attendance today: "Unfortunately, I do not have any news to report to RCB so I will not be attending tonight's meeting. I had sincerely hoped based on some signals from on high that this would be the week when a decision was communicated. My request for an agenda slot was an attempt to be proactive and ensure that I could get RCB information as soon as possible and field questions. If you can pencil me in for next week, that would be great. I apologize for the inconvenience of agenda revisions and unfulfilled expectations."
  - ii. National Residential Hall Honorary's "OTM" - NU's NRHH chapter seeks nominations for their OTM awards until Jan. 31. NRHH is heavily focused on creating a culture of recognition and service on campus. One of their programs is known as "OTMs" ("Of the Months"). Each month students are nominated for great work in the residence halls and a winner is selected. Those who win receive a gift.

The nomination form can be found here and there is more information about the program on NRHH's website. RCB exec and presidents may want to consider some students to nominate and recognize their contribution.
  - iii. Arrange the syllabus pages soon (Benjy)
