 1. I thought we did this already, but also I may be misremembering.
Action: RCB exec will have 1 page in Syllabus yearbook.
 - iii. Will be setting winter meeting dates after course registration
 - iv. Maybe having our last meeting of the quarter next weekend? If not, do we want a meeting the weekend after thanksgiving?
 1. If no meeting then, we could do last meeting on dec 5-6
 - g. Nancy (advisor)
 - i. Reported RCB vote on universal resident dues ($12/student) for Winter Quarter. Brad asked me to thank RCB for its timely decision; very helpful to Res Services' process.
 - ii. Possible candidates for 21-22?
 - iii. With a slightly later start with Winter Quarter, I've been reviewing/discussing the timeline for transitions/elections with Brad; check-ins with Council of Chairs; want to also discuss with RCB too.
 - iv. Upcoming events I plan to remind presidents for community interest
 1. Race and Rights: Wells, Willard, and Addams, 11/17, 6 pm, registration required - but free. This session will focus on three significant Chicago-based women activists who were connected in their reform work, but who encountered difficulties in finding common ground. Ida B. Wells, Frances Willard and Jane Addams each worked to expand women's rights and influence. However, they had significant disagreements in their approaches informed by their differing views about the impact of race and racism. Featuring author Michelle Duster, great-granddaughter of journalist and anti-lynching advocate Ida B. Wells, historian and author Rima Lunin Schultz, Jennifer Scott, Director and Chief Curator, Jane Addams Hull-House Museum, Leslie Harris, Professor, Northwestern University Department of History and Lori Osborne, Museum Director, Frances Willard House Museum.

Date: 11/14/20

Location: ZOOM!

2. Goodman Theatre streaming new work Until The Flood written and performed by Dael Orlandersmith (Nov. 15, 2020-2023) streaming free online.
3. Other updates I've added to the Opportunities for Remote Programming I created at the beginning of Fall Quarter.

3. Discussion

- a. Follow up on RCB events calendar for use by all RCs- clarify that it can be for any event?
- b. Virtual White Elephant gift exchange- logistics? Feasible?

End Time: 6:00 pm (CDT)
